Andrea Rose, a beloved mother, daughter, sister, grandmother, aunt, and friend passed away peacefully on January 18, 2025 after a courageous battle with breast cancer. Born on March 10, 1952 to Ulues Ross and Rosa B. Stovall, she brought light, love, and strength into the lives of everyone she met. Andrea graduated from Ball High School in 1971 and attended Texas Southern University. She worked at Eibands and Mikasa until they closed.

Andrea's life was a testament to resilience and compassion. Despite her own challenges, including living with Lupus, she remained a beacon of hope and support for others. Her vibrant spirit, boundless generosity, and enduring love for her family and friends left an incredible mark on all who knew her.

In heaven she joins her parents, Rosa B. Stovall and Ulues Ross Sr., brothers, John Stovall and Ulues Ross Jr., grandchildren, Christopher Ross and Andrea Rose Ross Jr., and brother-in-law, James McDaniel.

Andrea is survived by her loving and devoted daughter, Tomia Ross, and her son Andre Ross (Shalonda) who were her greatest joys. She also leaves behind her devoted sister Elizabeth McDaniel, Adele Stovall, and James Ross. She will be remembered by her grandchildren; Kaitlin Turner (Jeremy), Julian Ross, Jasmine Ross, Ashley Ross, Casell James, Dearris Ross (Alexis), Avery Ross; her great grandchildren, Aniyah Bell, Kaide Turner, and

Her legacy of love, strength, and compassion will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her.
