

Carolyn F. Sinegaure

April 9, 1958 - March 1, 2024

On April 9, 1958, in Galveston Texas, Louise Jackson and Edward Young welcomed their beautiful baby girl whom they named Carolyn Faye Young. At an early age she dedicated her life to Christ. Carolyn attended Galveston Public School and was a proud graduate of Ball High Class of 1975.

After high school, Carolyn attended Galveston College where she obtained her CNA license. In her early career, she was employed with UTMB for many years where she worked in the burn unit. She then worked as a Healthcare Provider. Due to her genuine connection to her field of work, she was able to form lifelong connections with her patients.

Carolyn married Cardwell Sinegaure and God blessed them with two daughters, Cassandra E. Young and Carlisha R. Sinegaure. After becoming a widow, she began dating Reginald Cummins and they were blessed with their first daughter, Rashanae S. Cummins. She later moved to Los Angeles California where she birthed her last daughter, Shameka L. Cummins. Upon returning to Galveston, Texas, Carolyn devoted her time to her children.

Carolyn enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. Her sense of humor kept everyone laughing. She loved to encourage others by sending daily inspirational messages via text and Facebook. Carolyn was a member of God's Kingdom and Restoration and enjoyed fellowshiping with her church family.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Annie Pink and Ethel Ashton; daughter, Shameka Cummins; nephew, Robert Fluellen III and Thomas Allen

She leaves to cherish her memories: daughters, Cassandria Young, Carlisha Smith (Edward), Rashanae Cummins; sisters, Helen Solzano (Pedro), Betty Cooper (Sylvester), Cynthia Boone; grandchildren, Ronesha Block, Crystal Franklin, Valisa Allen, Kaiya Williams, Anthony Alexis, and Romynii Nash; Goddaughter, Michelle Lockett; Special friend, Carrie Block; and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, and friends.
