“ To my cousin as a small girl that always put a small on our big mama and everyone that she came in contact with, my life will never be the same just the thought of knowing I won't be able to call you about medical questions and how are the boys, and seeing picture of your latest veggies that you and JD has grown. I know everyone say the hurt and pain of losing you will get better, im sorry because I dont agree. Rest easy my sweet baby girl you fault a hard battle. Take care of our family in heaven now. Love you.
