

Clarence H. Dixon

February 3, 1958 - April 6, 2024

Clarence Henry Dixon son of the late William and Ethel Dixon was born on February 3, 1958 in Brenham, TX. He was the eldest triplet born with his two sisters. He moved to Lamarque, TX at the age of 4. He accepted Christ at an early age joining Barbours Chapel Baptist Church under the late H. A. Ratcliff Jr. He attended Lamarque public schools from elementary to Jr. High. He moved back to Brenham, TX during his freshman year of high school where he would go on to graduate from Brenham High School. He eventually joined the army where he protected and served his country.

Clarence moved to Houston, TX in 2011 when he lived and partied enjoying life until he gained his heavenly wings. He loved to play pool, cards, dominoes and also loved to dance. He also enjoyed a good adult beverage.

Clarence always had a big heart. He thought of others before himself. He also was a very spiritual man that loved God. He read his bible faithfully.

He was preceded in death by his parents William and Ethel Dixon, four brothers and four sisters. Clarence leaves to cherish his memories four sisters: Curtis Mae Dixon, Willie Alma Dixon, Lillie Mae Simpson and Annie (Ray) Josey, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

We will miss his favorite sayings especially "Am I talking to fast or you listening to slow". Whenever you saw him he would give you a hug and big wet kiss and say "hey uncle sweetie baby".
