My Life's Story

Jesus is the Reward

Don't think of me as gone away, my journeys just begun. Life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of me as resting from the sorrow and the tears, in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how I must be wishing that you could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. So think of me as living in your hearts of those I've touched.

For nothing loved is ever lost and I was loved so much.

I, Eric Wayne "E" Holmes, was born November 19, 1967 in Dallas, Texas to a proud mom, Earline Holmes and father, Cosby Clay. I was the eldest of three children.

We later moved to Hitchcock, Texas where I attended Hitchcock and LaMarque Public Schools. I was a funny, loving guy with a big heart, who loved living life with a magnetic charm for the ladies.

I was a proud father of a beautiful daughter, Erica, my handsome son, Anthony and "PaPa" to my 3 grandchildren whom I never got to meet. I always want you to remember and never forget Dad and PaPa will always love you no matter what!

On Friday April 5, 2024 I transitioned from this life to my heavenly home. I was greeted happily by family and friends.

Now I leave cherished memories in the hearts of my beloved family: my parents, Earline (Jessie) Willis; my daughter, Erica (Destin) Webster; my son, Anthony Byers; three amazing grandchildren Danica, Darcy and Emory; my brothers, William Holmes (Teresa), Lawrence Irving (Jerroquishia), Willie Willis; sisters Jessica Andrews and Leanna Willis; nephews, Tracy Jr. and Jeremy Swan, Traelyn Swan, Thomas, Michael and Ashton Holmes, Keylin Oneal Irving and Christian Willis; nieces, TraQuiesha Swan, Dannette, Asia and April Holmes, Lauren and Lawriene Irving and Jerniya Glenn; and a host of close relatives and friends.
