“ Carrie,
My heart broke into many little pieces when I heard of Chip's passing. And many memories came flooding back. Memories of a 6 year old ringing my doorbell at 6:30 or 7 on a Saturday morning asking if Brandon was awake yet do they could watch cartoons together, to answering the door and Chip telling me Brandon had jumped off the next door neighbors roof and got hurt. Making him and Brsndon stand in the front porch and chew tobacco because they had snuck some and thought they were so grown up. Ray and I laughed so hard watching them trying not to get sick. Memories of the laughs, the hugs, the love we all shared. I pray the memories will one day bring many smiles to your heart. Much love,
Jan Chamoagne

“ Carrie,
I'm so sorry to hear Chip passed. I loved and cherished him as a brother. I'm sorry I was unable to make his service, as I just found out. I still remember the grilled pork chops you cooked for us, and the smell coming from the house. It definitely put me on cloud 9 from next door. Chip will be sadly missed. You both are in my thoughts and prayers.
