

Irene Lewis Johnson

May 2, 1942 - April 24, 2025

On May 2, 1942 in Brenham, Texas, a beautiful baby girl was born to Peter Lewis and Ruby Nunn Lewis. They named their blessing Irene, the first born of this union.

Irene moved to LaMarque, Texas in 1957 and was educated in the public schools of LaMarque ISD, graduating from Lincoln High School in 1960.

As a teenager, Irene accepted Christ, united with and was baptized at Greater Barbour's Chapel Baptist Church in Texas City. Her Christian journey continued as a member and Usher of Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church in Texas City and she later united with Little Rock Missionary Baptist Church in Texas City under Pastor Herbert M. Long, II.

Irene began her career at Manor Care/Avalon Care for over 20 years. Afterwards, she worked private duty for the Webber Family in Texas City also for over 20 years.

Irene loved the Lord with all her heart and had an unwavering and selfless spirit. She loved helping others and did so until her passing. Her passion was cooking, whether it was dressing, anything smothered, pound cakes, pecan squares or simply anything that was flavorful.

On the morning of April 24, 2025, God said to his beloved child, "Come unto me and rest!" and she departed this earthly life. She is preceded in death by her parents, Peter Lewis, Booker T. Terrell, Sr. and Ruby Terrell; son, Anthony Dynes; brothers, Joe Lewis, Booker T. Terrell, Jr., Claude Terrell; and sister, Rosie Lewis.

Irene leaves to cherish memoires of her life, children, Angelina Dynes, Richard Dynes, Leon Dynes (Pam) and Leonard Dynes (Mary); sisters. Nancy Murphy (Emmett), Eula Singleton (Chuck) and Ruby Terrell; brothers, Aaron Terrell (Daphne) and Troy Terrell (Joslynn); sisters-in-law, Miriam Lewis and Yvonne Terrell; 12 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren; her lifelong best friend, Marcia Wesley; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.
