

Jacqueline Kay Maxey

July 27, 2023

Jacqueline (Jackie) Kay Maxey departed her earthly home on July 27, 2023 at the University of Texas Medical Branch in Galveston, Texas.

Jackie was the youngest child born September 11, 1962 to Johnie Maxey and the late Margaret Maxey. She was born and raised in Galveston with her ten siblings.

Jackie accepted Christ at a young age while being a member of Mt Pilgrim Baptist Church. While at Mt Pilgrim she was also a member of the Eastern Stars Sarah Palace 222. Jackie was educated through the Galveston Independent School District and was a 1981 graduate of Ball High School. She obtained skills in cosmetology and certified nursing assistance (CNA) after high school.

Jackie utilized her CNA skills while being employed with UTMB in Galveston, St. David's in Austin, and she was a private duty CNA as well. She was also employed as a Baker with Fiesta, as a water aerobics instructor with YMCA, and with food services at The University of Texas at Austin – Dobie Cafeteria. Jackie hobbies included fashion, clothing, and decorating her homes in the latest décor. She enjoyed watching sports and was a huge University of Texas Longhorns fan. You could always catch her adorned in Longhorn attire. She was also a fan of the Ball High School Tornadoes football team and enjoyed their games as well.

Jackie loved her nieces and nephews and was considered the “fun” aunt at all family events. The neighborhood kids also thought fondly of her. She also loved traveling and going on cruises.

Jackie is preceded in death by her grandparents: Reece and Margaret Sheppard; her mother, Margaret Maxey; her Godmother, the late Corrine Smith; her siblings, Johnie Maxey Jr., Reece Maxey, Kenneth Maxey, Karen Maxey; her brother in law Otto Woods, Sr.; and her nephew, Paul Maxey.

Jackie leaves behind to cherish her memories, her children; Keosha Maxey, Beonzia (Joshua) Maxey, and BoReece (Jaszman) Maxey; her grandchildren, David Williams, Desirae Williams, Deja Williams, Emmitt Williams, Zachary Maxey, and Zariyah Maxey; her father, Johnie Maxey; her siblings, Gloria Woods, Eva Guidry, Delores (Ronald, Sr.) Armstrong, Brenda (Lafayette, III) Mckinney, Daniel (Shunta) Maxey, Medina (Levy) Bernstine, and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
