

Jearlean "Jerri" Nabors Mims

May 4, 1953 - January 8, 2026

On a Summer day May 4, 1953 Alex and Larretta birthed their 4th daughter, Jearlean Nabors Mims at 2:00 AM She was a swift little fire cracker who did anything for her mother and siblings.

She quit school at the tender age of 11 to help "Mama Dear" support her younger siblings. She missed one year of school before returning and finding out most of her classmates failed the year she missed! She settled right on in knowing she would thrive with her friends still there with her! She went on to finish school at Oak Grove High School in Louisiana, May 1972 and attended college to be a Data Clerk, however she never reached her goal. She stopped attending college in Louisiana and moved to Texas where two of her older sisters lived and made Texas her home.

Jearlean united with Progressive Missionary Baptist Church in Texas City under the late Pastor M. C. Bridges. She was a loyal and dedicated member of the Usher Board and Mission II. She was also active in the South Texas District Association Ushers and Nurses Auxiliary and the Mission.

Jearlean lost two daughters before being blessed with a baby girl, LaToya Karta Nabors. Her daughter was her complete blessing and world. She was a faithful God fearing woman that participated in anything dealing with God. Jearlean was a faithful servant at Living Word Community of Faith in Hitchcock where she faithfully served as an Usher until her last day.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Alex and Larretta Nabors; her sister, Ester Bell Gardner; two daughters, Kimberly and Larretta; son, Bradison Mims and two grandbabies, NuNu and Poppie.

She is survived by her children, LaToya Karta Nabors, William Watson, Phabian Watson, LaPorche Johnson (Shawntel), LaQuechia Mims, Kayshala Watson, Ramesh Mims and Kimberly Matthews; grandson, Leonard "L.J." Bourgeois, Jr.; seven sisters, Mary Buster, Iretha Alford (Earl), Ernestine Holloway (Lennis), Pearlie Smithers, Carolyn Harris (Tommy), Atlene Pierce and Marilyn Fanus; grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many loved ones to cherish her memories.
