

Jessie Mae McCutcheon

October 10, 1928 - December 15, 2025

Jessie Mae McCutcheon was born on October 10, 1928, to the late Glen Turner and Mamie Robinson. She received her early education in the public schools of Pledger, Texas. Later, she moved to Texas City, where she met and married Ernest McCutcheon.

In her professional life, Jessie Mae worked for the Labor Union and later for the Texas City Independent School District, from which she retired after years of dedicated service.

Jessie Mae was a faithful and devoted servant of the Lord. She was an active member of Greater Barbour's Chapel Baptist Church for many years and later united with Mount Paran Missionary Baptist Church, where she worshipped and served faithfully for over 30 years. Her life was a strong reflection of God's love, especially in her devotion to family.

On December 15, 2025, Jessie Mae McCutcheon was called home to eternal rest.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving daughters, Olivia Brown of Texas City, Texas, and Yvette Johnson of League City, Texas; her grandchildren, Quincy McCutcheon and Perry L. Johnson III; and her great-grandson, Kobe Johnson. She is also survived by a host of beloved friends, nieces, and nephews.
