

John Davis, Jr.

October 5, 1942 - May 30, 2024

With a radiant smile and an unwavering spirit, John Davis, Jr., made his debut into this world on October 5, 1942, in Galveston, Texas. He was born to the loving union of John Davis, Sr., and Sarah Amos Davis.

John embarked on his educational journey in the public schools of Galveston, Texas, graduating from Central High School. At an early age, he made a profound decision to dedicate his life to his faith. With an unshakable belief in the power of self-improvement, John continued to inspire all those around him, spreading love and positivity wherever he went.

John met the love of his life and united in marriage with Betty Allen Davis on May 5, 1966.

John dedicated more than twenty years of his life to the City of Galveston in the Traffic Department. He found solace in fishing, watching cowboys and Westerns, spending time with family, and sitting on the porch.

On May 30, 2024, John left this world to be with the Lord. He was preceded in death by his parents, John Davis, Sr., and Sarah Amos Davis; sisters, Francis Burns and Johnnie Mae Young; brothers, Albert Davis, Marcus Davis, Gilbert Davis, and Donald Davis; granddaughter, Quinita Cleveland.

John leaves behind a legacy of love that will live on in the hearts of his beloved family: his loving and devoted wife, Betty Davis; children, John Davis (Chanutelle) and Stacey Davis; grandchildren, Stannesha Davis (Randy), Johnai Davis, Jasmine Brooks, Johnny Mathews, John Davis, and Jovanna Davis; great- grandchildren, Randy Allen, Rilee Allen, Rhyan Allen, Lejan Jackson, and Lavern Jackson; great-great- grandchildren, Messiah Mathews, Norris Hill, Jersi Price, Josiah Price, Kayden Holmes, and Ola Davis; siblings, Loutta Dantzler, Sandra Chambers, Faye Davis (Dion), and Kathy Sue Jones: loving nephew, Joseph Clark; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, family members, and friends.
