“ I remember Johnisha teaching my daughter and the dance group she was in at Scott Elementary a dance, Johnisha's smile, poise and graceful mannerism that was complimented by her beautiful eyes danced right along with her, I helped with the dance group and fell in love with the beautiful and vibrant spirit this young lady possessed, later on I became friends with her mother and realized where she inherited her daintiness because Johnisha had a lot of character all virtuous yet fiery. Rest well sweet beautiful young lady rest with Jesus love you, and Sis. Hunter Mr. Red Praying for your entire family Love Alytha Dunn
