“ Julien, Nikki and family. I am so sorry. Julia passed the exact same day as my Daddy George A. Harris. Julia was so proud of you Julien and went on and on bragging to me after you got together. I first met Julia when I was working in the radiation therapy center at Ben Taub. I wanted to know who was this radiation patient under treatment who was such a happy spirit, she was just beaming with life. This was in 1995-97 and we became friends forever. She came to my symphony concerts and volunteered to serve cookies at intermission. We celebrated her birthdays, I visited her in hospitals when she has surgeries (and we both agreed that she was a very bad patient!). She asked me to play my flute when she was preaching and ministering all over. Julia was so close with our Lord that when she preached lovely scriptures and words of comfort tumbled off her tongue like rivers of fresh water. She touched and helped countless souls. We had too much fun going out to eat, sleeping over, drinking wine and dancing like fools. Once she fell in in her apartment called me and I ran over, she had broken her leg in a bad way. She had to go to a rehab facility for a while. When I visited she conned me into smuggling beer to her. Julia was a raving beauty with large lovely lips and I loved to see her dress up and model beautiful clothes. She had too many cancers and illnesses but after each illnesses she summoned strength enough to preach God's goodness and love. I love Julia and will see her again. I am thankful that Jesus loaned her to us for a while, not long enough. Blessings, Alicia Harris. piccflute3000@icloud.com
