

Kurtis Ray Williams

June 22, 1990 - February 28, 2023

Kurtis Ray Williams was born June 22, 1990. He was the last of three born to Joyce Ann Williams in Natchez, MS. He grew up very close to his mother. They were like brother and sister, and he was referred to as "her shadow". They would sit for hours talking with each other and this did not change even when moved out of town for work, Kurtis also loved his siblings, Tory and Tiffany. The three would often have dinner, enjoy joking around and playing music. He loved his entire family and spent as much time with them as he could. His cousins, his memaw, Irene Curtis, were dear to him. He shared an extra special bond with his uncle, Michael Terry and his grandfather, Harold. His five nieces and nephew also enjoyed his company, joking, listening to music and eating good food with much laughter. Kurtis loved to cook and often posted his cuisine on social media.

Growing up he endured many twists and turns in life but God had His hand on his life. At the young age of 17, Kurtis realized the error of his ways. After hearing the gospel by Dr. Michael P. Williams Sr. at Joy Tabernacle, he gave his life and heart to God. He then went back to his neighborhood and evangelized his friends. He brought them to Joy where they too were saved and baptized.

God opened the door for Kurtis to work in a profession where he was able to travel all over the country including Hawaii! He enjoyed each experience despite his fear of flying.

God also blessed Kurtis with a beautiful baby girl, Stormie. His love, his laughter, and his joy will be missed by his friends, family and child but none of it will ever be forgotten. He was a blessing from the Lord and a blessing to everyone who knew him.

Kurtis is preceded in death by his grandfather, Harold Curtis, grandmother, Mary Squalls, uncle, Sammie Lee Scott, and great grandparents, Abe Williams and Willie T. Williams.

Kurtis leaves precious memories with his daughter, Stormie Lola Dior Brooks, who be well loved and honored in his memory, mother, Joyce Williams, sister, Tiffany Valentine, brother, Tory Williams, memaw, Irene Curtis, uncles, Michael Terry, Darryl Wheeler, Riley Key, Michael Jackson, and Ricky Jackson, aunts, Patricia Lawrence and Shawn Dudley and great aunt, Earnestine Bates and a host of family and friends.
