

Lou Virginia Harris-Jones

April 2, 1941 - January 23, 2023

Lou Virginia Harris Jones was born April 2, 1941 in Linden Texas. She accepted Christ at an early age and served in the church as a child and an adult until her health failed.

Known as “Nana”, she was educated in Jefferson Texas school district where she attended Central High School in Jefferson, and moved to Galveston where she attended Galveston College where she studied Nursing. She received her certification as a Licensed Vocational Nurse. Lou Virginia did not allow anything to stop her when it came to her love for healthcare.

She worked at UTMB for over 40 years in various capacity that ranged from the post-partum unit where she was held in high regard with the work that she did with her patients and also TDC where she worked diligently to ensure that her patients received the same quality of care. She also worked at Turner’s Geriatric Center until she retired.

Lou Virginia was a lover of family. She loved to dance and party with family and friends, and she lived her life to the fullest until her health began to fail.

On January 23, 2023, Lou was called home to live in her heavenly home. She will be greeted by her love ones that proceeded her in death, her mother, her children: Latisha & Gerald Jones and her grandson, Melvin Matthews.

Lou Virginia leaves to cherish her memory her children: Larry Jones (Patricia) of Killeen, Texas; Doris Jones Boxley (Michael) of Texas City; Debra Jones Washington (Ronald) of Galveston and Johnnie Jones (Lesa) of Galveston.

Lou Virginia also leaves her love with her siblings: Bobbie Jean Saddler of Fort Worth, TX and Henry Harris (Earnestine) of Oklahoma. Lou leaves a legacy of 22 grandkids and 31 great-grandkids.

Her lively spirit and smile will be truly missed by all.
