

Ronnie Bernett Holloway

December 26, 1957 - September 15, 2022

Ronnie Bernett Holloway was born December 26, 1957 in Mt. Pleasant, TX. He passed away on September 15, 2022 at the St. Luke Hospital in Houston, TX. He was born to the late O.B. Gillespie and the late Joyce M. Bennett.

Ronnie accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age, where he served as a member of the Heglar Chapel CME Church. During his early years, he learned how to play the piano and sang with various choirs. Ronnie received his education from Marvin Pines and DeKalb High School. He went on to study music at East Texas Baptist University at Commerce, TX.

As a young adult in the early 80's, Ronnie relocated to Galveston County where he was married to Debbie Callary for a short period. To this union no children were born. He was employed by The Department of Corrections, followed by UTMB, and Schlumberger Industries. Following in the legacy of his beloved mother, Ronnie served, and continued to share, his gift of music as a musician for various churches in the Galveston area. He united with the New Macedonia Baptist Church in Hitchcock, TX where he continued to serve as Minister of Music until his departure.

He is survived by his Step Father, Joe Bennett of DeKalb, TX; 2 brothers, Randy (Doris) Holloway of DeKalb, TX; Willis Armstrong of Tatum, TX; 2 sisters, Pamela Williams of Houston, TX; Penny Holloway of DeKalb, TX; and one special friend, Anthony (Tony) Bozant of Texas City, TX

He is preceded in death by his mother, Joyce Bennett; Father, O.B. Gillespie; Step-Sister, Stepheny Bennett, and Grandmother, Cora Williams.
