“ Stacey was my neighbor on Oakwick. The first time I met her, I borrowed a cup of sugar from her and we ended up sitting on her front porch and killing a bottle of wine. Our history is complex, some ups and some downs, but in the end we were connected in a way that we only understood. We shared a lot of heartfelt conversations. I am heartbroken and I am so very sorry for your loss, she will be missed. Paula Drake (formerly Cough)
