

Warren Aubry

December 3, 1947 - February 13, 2024

Warren Aubry, beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, passed away peacefully on February 13, 2024 at the age of 74. He was born on December 3, 1947, in New Orleans, Louisiana, to Warren Joseph Aubry and Bernice Braxton.

As a young man, Warren moved to Galveston, Texas, where he met the love of his life, Carolyn Aubry. They were united in marriage for 36 years until her passing. Warren was a devoted husband and caretaker, cherishing every moment spent with Carolyn.

Warren was known for his strong work ethic and dedication. He began his career at the old grain elevator before transitioning to a patient care technician role at UTMB for a number of years. Later, he found fulfillment working in transportation at UTMB, where he was recognized multiple times as Employee of the Month. Warren's hard work and positive attitude left a lasting impact on all those he worked with and the people he encountered along the way.

Deeply rooted in his faith, Warren found strength and comfort in his spiritual beliefs throughout his life's journey.

Warren was preceded in death by his father, Warren Joseph Aubry, his mother, Bernice Braxton, his twin brother, Joseph Aubry, his sisters, Yolanda Aubry and Crystal Aubry; his beloved wife, Carolyn Sue Aubry, and daughter, Vora Green.

He is survived by his sister, Theresa Aubry; his daughters: Marlina Gray and her husband, Musa Gray and Yolanda Aubry, his sons: Warren Jr. and Calvin Aubry, his grandsons, Joseph Aubry, II, Warren Aubry Jr., Tyrin Aubry, and Xzavier Aubry, his granddaughters, Taniya Aubry and Xzavia Aubry, and a host of nieces, nephews, and relatives.

Warren will be remembered for his kind heart, unwavering faith, and dedication to his family and community. He leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and resilience that will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to know him.

Warren's memory will forever live on in the hearts of those he leave behind and he so deeply loved.
